Three tips to help yourself and protect others

SPREAD THE WORD

- Talk to family, friends, and neighbors
- Share these tips with others

REPORT THE SCAM

- To the authorities: your information can help identify and locate scammers
- To the companies involved: they are also often victims and can help fight scammers along with you

STAY ALERT AND BE PROACTIVE

- Consider signing up for alerts from your bank and credit card company or a credit monitoring service
- Safeguard your online information by using different and strong passwords for your accounts
