

NO MEDICAID CUTS

The Republican Plan for Medicaid Will Harm Alaska

More than 250,000 Alaskans rely on Medicaid and the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP).

Republican Cuts to Medicaid Put Alaskans' Health and Coverage At-Risk

Every proposal on the Republican wish list of more than $2 trillion in Medicaid cuts is bad news for Alaskans. Medicaid cuts would harm children, older adults, and families, ripping away their health care access and coverage. Republican Medicaid cuts would:

Cut Care for Children. More than 36% of children in Alaska are enrolled in Medicaid or CHIP. Around 42% of kids with special health care needs, such as a physical or behavioral disability, rely on Medicaid in Alaska. Cuts would disproportionately hurt children with the lowest incomes and the highest health care needs.

Block Access for Pregnant Women and Newborns. More than 3,200 births (36%) in Alaska per year are covered by Medicaid. A cut to Medicaid would prevent mothers and babies from getting the care they need.

Increase Disparities for Communities of Color. More than 60% of children and adults with Medicaid in Alaska are people of color. A decrease in Medicaid funding would reduce access for the communities that need it the most.

Curb Health Care Access for People with Disabilities. Medicaid covers over 36,000 people with a disability in Alaska. Only 25% receive Supplemental Security Income, meaning many do not qualify for Medicaid on the basis of their disability and could be subject to Republican policies like work reporting. People with disabilities often depend on Medicaid for services in order to thrive in their communities.

Create Barriers to Behavioral Health Services. Around 21,500 Medicaid beneficiaries were treated for a substance use disorder in Alaska in 2021. Medicaid cuts and eligibility restrictions threaten lifesaving treatment for people with behavioral health needs.

Cut Coverage for Medicare Beneficiaries. More than 20,000 dually-eligible Alaskans rely on Medicaid to help pay their Medicare premiums and co-pays. For these enrollees, a cut to Medicaid is a cut to Medicare.

Disrupt Nursing Home Care. Cuts to Medicaid could disrupt care for 76% of nursing home residents in Alaska who use Medicaid to pay for care in a nursing home.

Bottom Line:

Republican proposals to cut Medicaid will result in Alaskans losing Medicaid coverage—and there is no acceptable coverage loss. No Medicaid cuts to Alaskans to fund tax handouts to billionaires.
